Dear Friends and Family,

We all have been grieved about Merle going to be with the Lord. Erskine spent many years on the road with him. Over the years we have appreciated the fellowship of both Merle and Betty Maupin.

The Body of Christ will miss this great warrior of the Faith We ask the Holy Spirit to comfort those who have known Merle through the years. Merle is 104.

Love and blessings to all,
Erskine and Lucille

MOVIE NIGHT TONIGHT: Sunday, July 29th 7:00 P.M. - Last Sunday, June 24th we all enjoyed viewing how the power of prayer by a few of God's people spread to many and with God's power saved many cities and towns from the forces of evil. We all laughed at the antics of a Veggie Tales production, and their presentation of David and his encounter with the Giant Goliath. Thanks to George and Debby Kinser we all enjoyed refreshments along with an evening of fellowship.

Please plan your schedule to attend the next movie night. I know that there are many secular attractions to take up our time, but I believe an evening that is God filled is a much better attraction. - Mel Zimmerman

The Sunday school is in need of another round sided table about the same size as that one located in the Sunday school room just off the kitchen. If you have a table to donate, contact Mel Zimmerman or the church office.

The Ladies Night Out is being rescheduled due to several calendar conflicts this week. The time will be announced at a later date.

Sunday, July 15th Events

Deacons: A special induction of our new deacons will take place on Sunday, July 15th. The elders are waiting on responses from a few who have been asked to serve before announcing those who have already accepted the call. The elders have asked John Hamrick to be in attendance to place them in their calling of servanthood.

Semi-Annual Congregational Meeting is scheduled for Sunday, July 15th following a Sunday luncheon.

Pot Luck Luncheon - July 15th following the church service. Each family is asked to bring a main dish and a little extra for guests along with a side dish or salad and dessert. Please see Pam Hill if you have any questions about the luncheon.
